In the Name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.
O God come to my assistance.
Lord, make haste to help me.
My good Father, I offer myself to Thee.

In the First Mystery we contemplate the Triumph of the Father in the garden of Eden when, after the sin of Adam and Eve, He promises the coming of the Lord.

In the second mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father at the moment of the “Fiat” of Mary during the Annunciation.

In the third mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father in the garden of Getsemani when He gives all His power to the Son.

In the fourth mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father at the moment of every particular judgment.

In the fifth mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father at the moment of final judgment.

The “Rosary of the Father” in its five mysteries helps us to reflect on Our Father’s Mercy, which “is more powerful than evil, more powerful than sin and death” (Dives in Misericordia, VIII, 15). It invites us to become instruments of the triumph of Love of the Father, by giving our “yes” to Him in fullness and thus entering into the circle of Trinitarian Love that makes us “the living glory of God”. It also teaches us to live the mystery of suffering which is a great gift because it gives us the possibility to bear witness to our Love for the Father and to contribute to our brothers’ salvation.

The Angel said to Mary, “Do not fear Mary: You have found favour with God. You shall conceive and bear a son and give Him the name of Jesus. Great will be His dignity and He will be called the Son of the Most High; the Lord God will give Him the throne of David His Father. He will rule over the house of Jacob forever and His reign will be without end”. Then Mary said, “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord, let what you have said be done to me” (Lc 1:20 ss.).

I Hail Mary, Ill Our Father’s, Glory be, My good Father..., Angel of God...

In the fifth mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father at the moment of final judgement.

“How He was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet; and bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat and celebreate; for this son of mine was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found’!” (Lk 15:20-24)

I Hail Mary, Ill Our Father’s, Glory be, My good Father..., Angel of God...

In the fifth mystery we contemplate the triumph of the Father at the moment of final judgement.

“Then I saw a new heavens and a new earth. The former heavens and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no longer. I also saw a new Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from heaven from God, beautiful as a Father, I abandon myself into your hands; do with me what you will. Whatever you may do, I thank you: I am ready for all, I accept all.

Let only your will be done in me, and in all your creatures - I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into your hands I commend my soul; I offer it to you with all the love of my heart, for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself, to surrender myself into your hands, without reserve, and with boundless confidence, for you are my Father. (Charles de Foucauld)

Let us pray: Father, for your children, for every child, for all your children, we beseech you; give peace and salvation in the name of the Blood of your Son Jesus and in the name of the sorrowful Heart of His Mother Mary. Amen.

The Father promises that for each Our Father prayed, dozens of souls will be released from Purgatory. The Father will give very special graces to the families where the rosary will be recited and the graces will be handed down from generation to generation.

To all those who will recite it with faith He will do great miracles, so great as has never been witnessed in the history of the Church.

with ecclesiastical approval

Giuseppe Casale
Archbishop of Foggia 23.11.1988

Litany of the Father

Father of infinite majesty have mercy on us
Father of infinite power -
Father of infinite goodness -
Father of infinite tenderness -
Father, abyss of Love -
Father, power of grace -
Father, splendour of the resurrection -
Father, Light of peace -
Father, joy of salvation -
Father, ever more Father -
Father of infinite mercy -
Father of infinite splendour -
Father, salvation of the despairing -
Father, hope of those who pray -
Father, tender before all sorrows -